

★Call for Papers★

The 13th annual meeting of The Japan Association of International Liberal Arts (JAILA) will be held at Setagaya Campus of Tokyo City University on Saturday, March 15th, 2025 (9:30~). Proposals are invited from persons wishing to make a presentation. We welcome submissions from a broad range of disciplines, including philosophy, history, social science, natural science, art, education, and foreign languages. We encourage contributions from all fields of international and/or interdisciplinary research and education. Please ensure your presentation is accessible to those in other fields in order to promote interdisciplinary discussion and collaboration.

Presentations from non-members are also welcome. (A one-day membership fee is free for all full-time students and 1,000 yen for other non-members. We will inform applicants of the payment method when their proposals are accepted.)

Presentation Type

There are three types of presentation are available:

[1] Oral presentation (Face to Face)

30 minutes (including a 5 to 10 minutes for Q and A session).

[2] Poster presentation (Face to Face and On-Demand)

Presented in person at the venue and online. Details will be announced soon.

[3] Poster presentation (On-Demand only)

Submitted as a PDF.

- Presentations are accepted in both English and Japanese.
- Presenters from both [2] and [3] qualify to be chosen for the Best Poster Prize and the Encouragement Prize. Voting among participants will take place on the day of the conference.
- The presenters of [2] are also required to submit their posters as PDFs in order for online participants to view.
- For [2] and [3], it is acceptable to present a doctoral dissertation proposal. In such cases, please use the following format “Title: Subtitle (Doctoral dissertation work-in-progress)” on the application form.
- In case of poster presentations, if you wish to change your poster type after submission, please contact the JAILA office ( office@jaila.org ).
